OCTOBER TO DICEMBER 2023

MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT MARIA LEGAZ

I am very happy that we continue to share every Monday and Tuesday and enjoying the company and the activities in our Association.

We have been able to carry out all the events and activities thanks to the support of our volunteers, since the existence of SCCA is largely due to them. From here we want to thank all our volunteers who help us in the day centers and in visits to members who, due to their mobility and health, cannot accompany us weekly.

My greatest wishes of happiness and togetherness to you and your families.

Hispanic Day -10th October

In honor of our countries of origin we dress in typical costumes, making this event a great day of unity, remembrance and fun. We were delighted to have the warm company of the Consul-General of Spain, Ms Rebeca Guinea Stal, together with the Director of the Cervantes Institute in Sydney, Coral Martínez Íscar, and her entire team.

We also thank the flamenco producer and choreographer, Pepa Molina

Melbourne Cup - 7th November

We had a nice parade of headdresses and hats in celebration of the big horse race. Congratulations to the beautiful winners of the contest, and a big round of applause for all the participants!
